

Interview information

You will need to bring

- Reference or report from a teacher or school
- Certificates or your predicted grades
- A pen

Activity

In the run up to your interview please research current events that are happening in the business or computing world.

It would be sensible to print off the research, or have notes and bring them to the interview.

In the interview you will handwrite a short reflection on the research you have done.